Family Day

Sunday, 10 December
10:00 am – 3:00 pm

This Family Day celebrates our newest exhibition The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil.

In addition to the activities there will be live music by Jacob Boote, special devil toolkits available to borrow, and surprise appearances by the Save the Tasmanian Devil Program's mascot Errol the Devil (pictured below). It's going to be a devilish day!

All activities are free, drop-in sessions from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm unless otherwise indicated.

Activities are suitable for all ages, however ideal ages are indicated as below:

- Ideal for 0-6 years with guardian
- Ideal for 7+ years

Artist Working Live ●

Watch and listen as wildlife artist Robin Wingrave reveals his secrets to illustrating the enigmatic Tasmanian devil. Image credit: Robin Wingrave.

📍 Courtyard Veranda

Save the Tasmanian Devil Program ●

Come meet the team and find out about the work they are doing to help save the world's largest surviving carnivorous marsupial, the Tasmanian devil.

📍 Courtyard

Devil Documentary ●●

Take a break and dip into some G-rated documentaries about the Tasmanian devil and its fight for survival.

📍 Bond Store Basement

Devil Degustation ●

How much food does a Tasmanian devil devour in a night? Discover what these animals eat, how much they eat, and design a menu to delight a hungry devil!

📍 Centre for Learning and Discovery

Translucent Sculptures ●

Experiment with texture and layering to create your own devil sculpture out of recycled plastics. This workshop responds to artwork on display by contemporary artist Matt Calvert.

📍 Centre for Learning and Discovery

Flute Tunes ●●

Enjoy this live appearance of the Tasmanian Flute Society. This group features professional and student musicians of all ages and will perform a mix of classical and contemporary tunes.

📍 Central Gallery

🕒 11:00 am – 12:15 pm
with a short interval

Creatures of the Night ●

Discover a world of nocturnal animals who come alive at night while we sleep! Hear a wild story, have fun making animal sounds of the night and be part of an animal shadow puppet show.

📍 Central Gallery

The Devil You Know and the Devil You Don't ●

Richard Hale, a senior TMAG educator and former Parks and Wildlife Ranger, introduces you to the world of the Tasmanian devil, sharing video footage and live projected images. Some facts you may know, but others will surprise! This short talk is followed by a brief walk-through of The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil exhibition.

This program is supported by The Friends of the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery.

📍 Central Gallery and Argyle Galleries 1-3

🕒 10:15 am – 11:00 am

Remarkable Mask Making ●●

Before you explore The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil get into character by making your own remarkable masks. Add character through scars that tell your life story. Discover the power of seeing your environment through a devil's eyes.

📍 Argyle Foyer

🕒 11:00 am – 3:00 pm
