Family Programming

Family Discovery Days

Inspired by the The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil, these discovery days will involve engaging workshops, displays, activities and stories that introduce families and young children to the world of the Tasmanian devil.

Dates: Sunday 10 December 2017 and Sunday 18 March 2018

Time: 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

School Holiday Program: Devise a Devil

Join TMAG's learning team to create large Tasmanian devil sculptures from organic and recycled materials. These collaborative daily workshops include hands-on 3D making for 5-12 year olds, as well as an informative and playful devil-themed space for early learners.

See your devil sculpture displayed in the Watergate Courtyard from 22 to 26 January!

Dates: 15 to 19 January 2018

Time: 11:00 am to 2:00 pm

Location: Centre for Learning and Discovery

Self-Guided Resources

For young children under 6, pick up one of the special toolkits made specially for The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil, including devil finger puppets, puzzles, and a sketch book. Available for loan during your visit.

Public Programming

Devil Reading Lounge

Sink into a bean bag or a lounge chair and enjoy a specially created devil bush soundscape. Select a book from our special Devil Library with selected books from early learners to adults. Or browse the latest information on devil conservation from TMAG's exhibition partners.

Location: Central Gallery

The Devil Sunday Sessions

A series of late afternoon short talks with live music in TMAG's summery Watergate Courtyard. Grab a beer and a bite to eat and hear leading experts discuss devil conservation and the most recent research into the health and survival of the devil. Enjoy special guest MCs, live music in partnership with Music Tasmania, and family friendly activities.

For the full list of speakers and featured musicians see the TMAG website in January 2018.

Dates: Sunday 4, 11 and 18 February 2018

Time: 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Please note TMAG will close one hour later on these three Sundays.

Devil After Dark

TMAG and the University of Tasmania (UTAS) invite the general public to this late night opening, welcoming international and interstate students commencing their UTAS studies.

The event is a unique opportunity to visit The Remarkable Devil Exhibition after dark. Enjoy short talks and interactives or a surprise tour by a TMAG curator.

Relax with a drink, grab a snack from the Watergate food vans or catch some great live music. Free entry. All ages welcome.

Date: Thursday, 1 March 2018

Time: 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm

This event is being held in conjunction with the University of Tasmania's Welcome to Hobart program.

Public Talks

Curator's Guided Floor Talk

Join Kathryn Medlock as she takes you on this personal tour through the exhibition. See how Kathryn has traced the cultural, zoological and conservation story of the devil across this comprehensive exhibition.

Date: Wednesday 7 February 2018

Time: 11:00 am to 11:40 am

Location: Central Gallery

The Art of the Devil

Senior Art Curator Dr Mary Knights will be in conversation with contemporary Tasmanian artists who have created work specially for The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil or loaned artworks responding to the exhibition themes. Afterwards, join Mary and the artists for a walk through the exhibition.

Date: Saturday 3 March 2018

Time: 11:00 am to 12 noon

Location: Central Gallery

Curator's Talk

Be a guest of the Friends of TMAG at this special mid-morning curator's talk. The Remarkable Tasmanian Devil curator Kathryn Medlock will give you a fascinating insight into how a major zoological exhibition is organised. Get a richer understanding of the cultural and scientific knowledge contained within this unique show.

Date: Thursday 8 March 2018

Time: 11:00 am to 11:40 am

Location: Argyle Galleries 1-3
