School Holiday Program

11–14 July 2023

Come along to TMAG this July for the free holiday program! Check out the new exhibition Twist, work with Tasmanian Aboriginal artists, and create your own Mix 'n' Match creature.

All ages are welcome. Drop in during the scheduled times.

Shallow to deep swim

An invitation to go on a journey, from dipping your toes along the bank of a little river before heading out into the rolling ocean breakers. This program is an acknowledgement of community, Country and each other, creating a portrait of gratitude. Facilitated by Tasmanian Aboriginal artist Gemma O'Rourke.

Sessions will include movement, storytelling and painting.

📅 Tuesday 11 and Thursday 13 July

🕒 Session times:

11:15 am – 12:00 pm

12:15 pm – 1:00 pm

1:15 pm – 2:00 pm

Who we are // Where we come from

Explore the essence of identity and lineage in this interactive workshop delivered by intergenerational duo, Jodi and Tom Dickinson. We invite you to journey through time, tracing the evolution of our family's Tasmanian Aboriginal ancestry from past to present. An exploration for all, this workshop redefines the way we engage with history, identity and kin.

 Wednesday 12 and Friday 14 July

 11:00 am – 12:15 pm

12:45 pm – 2:00 pm

Other activities at TMAG

Discovery backpacks are a fun and free resource to help families explore specific areas of the museum. Borrow one from the front desk when you arrive! Or, pick up a Tentacle Trail and see how many tentacle teasers you can find answers to. Visit the This Too Shall Pass exhibition to find all of the mystery artworks! Or, visit mapiya lumi | around here, TMAG's gallery for children aged 0–7 years – no bookings required.

 Available during regular TMAG opening hours, Tuesday–Sunday
