School Holiday Program  16 – 19 April 2024

Join us at the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery (TMAG) these April school holidays to celebrate the final weeks of the augmented reality trail, Hidden Creature Gallery and make your very own 'beastie box' creature to take home.

TMAG's school holiday program is FREE, suitable for all ages and no bookings required.

Beastie Boxes

Create your own 'beastie box' creature to take home. Teach it to dance or fly.

📅 Tuesday, 16 – Friday, 19 April

🕐 11:00 am – 2:00 pm

ⓘ Drop In.
Suitable for independent makers 7 years and up. Adult assistance required for younger children.

The Beastie Box program has been developed by Hobart/nipaluna based designer and maker Bryony Anderson.

HIDDEN CREATURE GALLERY

Hidden Creature Gallery (final weeks)

Ever wondered what museum objects might say if they came to life? This augmented reality experience brings alive 25 digital creatures hiding across TMAG. Can you find them? What do they say? These digital creatures have been created and voiced by young Tasmanians working with the TMAG collection and assisted by Arena Theatre.
