

THE READING ROOM / BRIGITA OZOLINS

ARTIST TALK FOR STUDENTS

THURSDAY 11 AUGUST

AccessArt presents a special opportunity to meet Tasmanian artist Brigita Ozolins and hear about the journey behind the stunning mixed-media installation, The Reading Room, currently on display at TMAG.

The Reading Room is an exhibition which celebrates the mysterious world of books, words and reading and invites audience participation through an online dimension of the project and an array of special public events. Hear about Brigita's background, artistic influences and the practicalities of delivering such an ambitious project. Presented in the relaxed atmosphere of the Commissariat Store, this special event for students involves a 35 minute talk supported by a visual slideshow and 25 minutes for questions and open discussion.

www.tmag.tas.gov.au

WHEN Thursday 11 August, 1:30–2:30 pm

COST Free

WHERE Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery
40 Macquarie Street, Hobart

WHO Target audience: high school & college art students and their teachers

Bookings are essential as numbers are limited. Individual or group bookings please contact tmag.bookings@tmag.tas.gov.au or phone (03) 6211 4189. Our Bookings Officer can assist you to spend time in The Reading Room as part of your visit if requested.

