

Wednesday 8 June

Celebrate and Create

Celebrate the International Year of Forests with Maree Bakker, Community Sustainability Officer with DPIIPWE, by exploring some creative ways of reusing paper.

11am–2pm, drop in anytime
Commissariat Store

All ages

Free event, no booking required

Thursday 9 June

Stinks and Stings

Join the animal scientists and discover how animals use chemicals to find food, attract a mate, and put off predators.

11am–2pm, drop in anytime
Zoology Gallery

All ages

Free event, no booking required

Wednesday 15 June

Volcano Lab

Become a do-it-yourself scientist with AccessArt and create your own mini volcanic eruption to add to the Volcano Lover installation.

11am–2pm, drop in anytime
Volcano Lover, art gallery 4

All ages

Free event, no booking required

Thursday 16 June

Rock Zoo

What's big, red, and eats rocks? Can animals turn into stone? Have fun finding the answers when you uncover the links between zoology and geology.

11am–2pm, drop in anytime
Zoology Gallery

All ages

Free event, no booking required

INTERNATIONAL YEAR
OF FORESTS • 2011

Further information

All programs held at the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery,
40 Macquarie Street, Hobart.
All children aged 8 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

Please note

These programs are not suitable for large groups. For enquiries please contact the Centre for Learning and Discovery on 6211 4189 or email tmag.bookings@tmag.tas.gov.au www.tmag.tas.gov.au