In honour of her contribution to the establishment of the Prize, for 2013 this important national competition is named the Jill Freeman 25th City of Hobart Art Prize. As usual, it will be eclectic, and as usual will feature important artists from Tasmania and the rest of Australia. We have the fortunate opportunity to have our own private viewing on 25 July — perhaps with some assistance from someone closely involved? We're working on that...

Members $20 Non-members $25
including refreshments
TMAG main entrance, Dunn Place.
