

ballawinne

2011 Primary school student workshops

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

A unique program for students in association with the Tasmanian Aboriginal exhibition ningenneh tunapry 'to give knowledge and understanding' ballawinne or red ochre holds a central spiritual and symbolic place in Tasmanian Aboriginal culture. Join TMAG staff and Tasmanian Aboriginal community presenters from Palawa Aboriginal Corporation on a journey to discover and create with ochre. This workshop will include a short tour of the ningenneh tunapry exhibition.

'A terrific education program—thoroughly engaging ... Really inspired students about Tasmanian Aboriginal culture.'

– Sarah Koehne, teacher,
Geeveston District High School

- Venue: Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery, 40 Macquarie Street, Hobart
- Dates: 15, 16 & 18 March
4, 5, 6 & 8 April
16-20 May
- Session times: 10am–12pm, 12.30–2.30pm. Maximum two sessions per school per week block.
- Presenters: Palawa Aboriginal Corporation educators and TMAG staff
- Suitable: Grades 1–6
- Bring: Students must bring a smock
- Cost: These programs have been funded through the Aboriginal Education Unit of the Department of Education and the Aboriginal Program for Catholic Schools. Independent schools will be charged $5 per student. Minimum group 25 students.

Limited sessions, bookings essential

Phone: (03) 6211 4189 or email: tmag.bookings@tmag.tas.gov.au

This program is supported by: Tasmanian Museum & Art Gallery, Aboriginal Education Unit (Department of Education), Aboriginal Program for Catholic Schools