

TO CATCH A TIGER / JAMES NEWITT

FREE FAMILY DAY AT TMAG!

SUNDAY 5 FEBRUARY 2012

SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

10:00–10:30 am

The Last Tasmanian Tiger

Join a Discovery Ranger for a detailed look at this shy and graceful animal.

11:00–11:30 am

Animal Detectives

If you saw a Tassie Tiger footprint would you know it? Learn all about the footprints of our native animals.

12:00–12:30 pm

Going, Going, Gone!

How did the Tassie Tiger meet its sad demise? How can you help save the wonderful native animals of Tasmania?

1:00–2:00 pm

Thylacine factory

Construct your very own moving tiger toy.

2:00–2:30 pm

Diorama drama

Native animal role-play amongst the art.

3:00–3:30 pm

Stories strange but true

Share your strange encounters and see them spring to life as illustrations!

4:00–4:30 pm

Tiger tales

Enjoy storybook readings on TMAG's precious thylacine skin 'buggy rug'.

James Newitt, When a wolf might look like a dog 2011, video still.
Image courtesy the artist

Hands-on sessions led by TMAG educators and special guests:

Monica Hayes, Discovery Ranger, Tasmanian Parks and Wildlife Service!

Hanna Parssinen, celebrated puppet-maker!

WHO Ages 3–12, carers and siblings welcome

WHERE Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery
5 Argyle Street, Hobart

To Catch a Tiger is an art installation by James Newitt exploring the legend of the Tasmanian Tiger.

It is the final exhibition in the Star/Dust series, presented with the support of Detached Cultural Organisation and the Friends of the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery.

Tasmanian Museum
& Art Gallery

DETACHED

